I COMMUNICATED.

As the custom of celebrating the Fourth of July by military parades through the hot treets of a town, on a hot summer's day. has been generally abandoned in the Southern cities, of late years, on account of health and comfort, I hope that the railroad companies will make arrangements by which such of our citizens who desire to take advantage f the coming anniversary of Independence, as a holiday, for a short trip in the country. can be enabled to go, at least as far as Culpeper Court House, on one road, and the plains on the other, and return the same day, at a moderate charge. Many would like to spend a few hours in sight of the mountains, and return at night. MANY.

Flour is in small supply, but, beyond the actual wants of the city trade, there is scarcely shy enquiry. We quote Union street Superfine at i, though by the dray load, holders are asking $7.25. There is nothing doing in Extra or Family, and our quotations remain unchanged. There were some offerings of Wheat on 'Change, but we teard of no transactions, and prices are nominal. Arrivals of new Wheat are now expected, and but for the recent rains, there would doubtless have been some in the market by this time. Corn is inactive, with small sales at 84 @ 85c. Nothing doing in Rye, and Oats are dull, at 50c.

THE HENRY CLAY STATUE .- Our readers have been apprised of the fact that the marble statue of the illustrious Henry Clay, upon which the sculptor Hart has been engaged for several years, has been completed, and ployed by the Ladies' Clay Statue Associa- the territories, and no Congressional discrition of Virginia, organized shortly after the defeat of Mr. Clay, in the Presidential elec-tion 1844. The Directors of the Association committee to select a suitable location for the statue, and to recommend such measures for its reception, inaugration, and preservation as might be deemed expedient. That committee will probably hold a meeting, this week, and will then arrive at such conclusion as will enable them to make a report.— In the mean time, the public are discussing the question, "Where should the statue be placed." of the Bedford Democrat. Dinner being over, the company repaired to the adjoining room, where a number of toasts were offered and responded to by Hon. Wm. Smith, Wm. Old, esq., of Richmond, Mr. Massie, of Rockbridge, Mr. Glass, Mr. Irvine, Mr. S. Garland. jr., and others .-Lynchburg Rep.

RICHMOND VA .- The Richmond Dispatch grows eloquent in describing the "Progress of Richmond." Among other declarations, it says: "There are few if any cities in the South that equal Richmond in rapid growth and general prosperity. A gentleman of great wealth from the West has declared his intention to establish a large bank here; saveral others are arranging for putting up a sugar refinery; scores of them intend commencing the tobacco trade, and small manufactors, by the dozen, would go to work, and their labor add to the capital of the city if they could but get suitable houses in which to commence HAMPDEN SIDNEY COLLEGE. The Common ment Exercises at this institution last week are represented as most interesting.

The eloquent Oration of Henry W. Miller, esq., was listened to by an overflowing aulience, among whom were some of the brightest intellects in the State. It was received with great appliance. The Faculty and Board of trustees conferred the degree of Doctor of Divinity on the Rev. Wm. J. Hoge now of New York, and also awarded the same high honor to the Rev. R. W. Bailey, President of Austin College, Texas.

STORM DOINGS .- The storm of thunder wind, hail and rain, on Friday last did, considerable mischief in some parts where its pow ers prevailed. In Petersburg it unroofed houses, damaged the crops, and was set down as by far the most violent with which the city has been visited during the summer season. - Richmond Enquirer

SO THE WAR IN EUROPE. - ONE HER can Bible Union:-HAMBURO, May 14, 1859 .- My heart bleeds at

he fact that because our highly favored American brethren are doing so little, at present, for the spread of God's holy word in Central Europe, we are now losing the most inviting opportunities of supplying the large armies with the New Testa-

Oh that God would move the hearts of all who can give, to come forth to the help of the Lord against the mighty at this critical position of Europe.
Yours in the Lord, J. G. ONCKEN

These one hundred thousand Testaments can easily be furnished. Let us do it. One dollar will supply more than five copies. One dollar from each person who hears this cry for the Bread of Life, will furnish the means needed to send these one hundred thousand New Testaments to the unhappy soldiers ere they perish, or scattered again. No time is to be lost. The whole sum can be raised, and the presses set in motion in $7,992 in pine apples; $19,943 in raisins; $14,432 less than one month, if every brother and sister, in musical instruments; $40,394 in jewelry; $87,- and every friend of the Bible, who hears this cry for the Bread of Life, immediately on receiving 589 in watches; $78,882 in dressed hides; $129,111 for the Bread of Life, immediately on receiving in undressed do.; $55,103 in brandy; $19,120 in this statement will send one dollar each. Extensive Swindle. The New Orleans Crescent says: An extensive and rather remarkable case of commercial swindling has taken place in this ity, and has been a topic of talk in mercantile circles for the last several weeks. We heard of the swindle soon after its development, but suppressed the publication of it in respect to the feelings of the gentleman who was ruined by his connection with the villian, and who dreaded the publicity of it.

The swindler, or one of them, is J. L. Woolsey, late of the firm of Woolsey & Etheridge, at No. 99 Camp street. The two came to this city about two years ago, and began the commission business with a capital of increased; and the house of Woolsey & Etheridge promised to become one of the first in the city. As has been shown, by letters tound, Woolsey was in complicity with another villain, named James R. Duryee, who conducted a commission house in Mobile, under the bogus title of E. H. Fairchild & Co.
